meeting would harmonize the warring factions, the result appeared to be quite the contrary. The transactions lasted until midnight, and consisted for the most part of violent harangues and wranglings. The meeting was called to order in a cloak room at the rear of a large ball, with Mr. James A. Ross. of Pailadelphia, in the chair; R. W. Tuompson, of Indiana, efficiated as secretary. R. G. Still, of Pennsylvania, was named as permanent chairman. Several letters of regret were presented. One of these was from Recorder C. H. J Taylor. It was said that Mr. Taylor visited the building early in the evening, and so ffling the battle decided that discretion was the better part of v. lor. The assembly refused to allow his letter to be read, because one of the members said that its three pages contained only one sentence that was not personal. A'l the letters, therefo e, were laid upon the table.

Mr. Ross made a strong stand for order in the meeting, but he was overwhelmed. He su ceeded in gaining a hearing for bis address, which asserted the the egro Democrats were confronted by conditions unlike those on the evening of the first day of Chicamauga. Through some miscarriages of excellent plans, he said, or some treachery in their racks, principally, perhaps, on account of ill chosen grounds taken for the onslaught; their arms had recently met with reverses. They were fighting for a glorious cause, how ever, and as the representaves of one million Democratic voters they had met in council of war to take steps looking to their safety and their glory. Mr. Ross' speech was full of oratorical harmony, but it failed to inspire peace. When he had finished the war notes were sounded in earnest and some of the far-seeing ones sent for the officers of the police. Sergt. Keefe, with Officers. O'Brien and Lee, responded and remained on duty in the building the remainder of the evening. Certainly it cannot be any other place. Finally a committee was chosen

Remarks favoring harmony in the ranks were made by Lawyer A. A. Mossell, of Philadelphia; Rev. R. W. Christian, of Kentucky; Lawyer L W. Pulies and Lawyer J. W. Ross, of New York. The a ldress, which was adopted, assert ed that the meeting was called f r the purpose of harmonizing the alleged factions in their ranks, and that it was the wish of the meeting to demonstrate to the public that there is unanimity of sentiment The strong arm of Justice is around Democrats. The address stated the reason why the members of the assembly were Democrate, and eulogized President Cleveland as the recognized head of the whole party. It represented the necessity of a division of the negro vote, indorsing, also, the President's Hawai:an policy and the repeal of the Sherman silver law. The document concludes; "We beg to assure the D mocracy and the public in general th t this conlerence, representing some of the best brains of the negroes of this No one knows it better than the country, is united and harmonious for the interests of the race, the welfare of the country, and the future prospects of the Democratic party." A committee of seven was ap ponted by the chairman to wait upon Mr. C H. J. Taylor to request him to accompany them in a visit to the President, that he might be acquainted with the action of the conference.

A FEARFUL WRECK.

A British Bark Goes Ashore and Her

Crew is Drowned.

London, Dec. 31.—The British bark Osseo was wrecked in a gale at Holyhead yesterday morning, and with her perished her entire crew of twenty-six The Osseo was driven ashore back of the Holyhead breakwater. Her signals of distress were first heard by the coast guard about 4 o'clock in the morning. At that time it was pitch dark, and great waves were washing over the breakwater. In spite of the danger of being washed into the sea, the guard proceeded along the breakwater, and, having rigged up the rocket apparatus, began firing life lines in the direction of the wreck. The faint light of the rockets soon disclosed the fact that the vessel had broken in two amidships, and that the main mast had fallen, crushing the lives out of several of the crew. A few survivors could be seen clinging to each half of the vessel, and their piteous cries for help could be heard above the roar of the storm. After many failures the coast guard succeeded in firing a line over the wreck, but by that time all on board had perished. A lifeboat vainly tried again and again to approach the wreck. Not a vestige of the bark could be seen to-day, and there is no prospect of any salvage. The Osseo was a bark of 1,399 tons. She arrived at Falmouth on December 15 from Taltal, and had been ordered to Anderson. Reports of stormy weather continue to be received from all parts of Europe. Numerous small wrecks and casualties are reported in Great Britain and Ireland. Many lives were saved by lifeboats. A severe gale is blowing on the Baitle, and navigation is suspended at Copenhagen.

PARKHURST DISSATISFIED. Understanding Between Lexow and

New York, Dec. 31.—In an interview with a Tribune reporter, Dr. Park-hurst was asked: "Have you an idea from reading the testimony of Supt. Byrnes that there was a previous understanding between the Superinten-dent and the Lexow Committee?" He replied: "There is not the slightest doubt about it. In fact, I am free to say that I knew some time ago that there was an understanding between the committee and Mr. Byrnes. I am not prepared to say that Mr. Goff had knowledge of it, but the understanding involved the manner in which Mr. Byrnes was to be treated. Just what the understanding was I decline to state, but I knew that Byrnes was not to be badly damaged. I first made up my mind that there was an understanding when I heard that Byrnes was supplying the committee with information. My sentiments in regard to Mr. Byrnes are the same now as they always have been. I have been fighting Mr. Byrnes three years, and he has been fighting us, and I am firmly of the conviction that if I care for the safety of our organization I cannot afford to become allied with the enemy in any way, shape or manner. I look upon Supt. Byrnes as a constiuent part of a system that is corrupt, and for that reason I do not believe it is wise to have any dealings with

FIFTY LIVES LOST.

Fearful Storms Along the British and French Coasts. London, Jan. 2.—Fearful storms are reported from all parts of the British that at least fifty lives have been lost. The Ramsgate (Kent) lifeboat crew put to sea at midnight and returned at noon with the crew of the schooner Union, wrecked on the Goodwin Sands. It is regarded as certain that the col-lier Napoli and the fishing steamer Nordsee both foundered off the Dutch coast on Saturday. There were twenty-five persons on both vessels, and there is hardly a doubt that all of them were drowned. A number of fishing boats which left Cherbourg on Saturday have also been lost, and probably their crews.

THAT LIBEC.

There are times in the history of men when they resort to bluffs and subterfuges to hide their deeds. Very often it is necessary to play a game of bluff and very desperate is that game sometimes, that on its face, it looks like the gui'ty is innocent. In the case of (). H. J. Taylor, no such a game of bluff is plausible, nor is it possible for him to pretend to the peo ple that he is the injured innocence.

The mission of the BEE is to protect the people against the imposition of a fraud, bluster and liar. If what the BEE has published is not true, the courts will remedy any injury; and if true, which shall beshown, no punishment is too great for this man.

It is on the lips of almost ever, other female you meet that C H. J Taylor is not the man to be respected; some insult, they say, he has offered to them or to some friend.

His reputation in this community is of such a character that hardly a respectable person will invite him to his house, except one or two no donbt, who has received some personal consideration from him.

The case is now in court where the BEE wanted it to go; in fact, it was at the urgent request of the BEE when the bluster asked the District Attorney the advisability of getting a war rant, that he be given one at all

EDITOR ROSS SPEAKS.

HIS ADDRESS THE PLATFORM OF THE NEGRO DEMOCRATIC ASSO-CIATION.

At the meeting of the colored Democrats on last Monday night, Editor James A. Ross delivered an address which was adopted as the platform of the association.

FELLOW DEMOCRATS: It is recorded that after the disastrous discompture of the Union arms on the first day of Chickamauga, when, owing to a miscarriage of judicious plans, our army was for a time aithout a leader and without concert, when all was uncertainty and despair for the want of leadership, one subordinate General stood forth equal to the emergency, planted his colors on a commanding hill, formed his lines of defense, gathered to himself the other staggering columns, resto ed confidence in the forces, sounded the bugle note of defiance, conducted a masterful and orderly retreat, and saved from ignominious lestruction the Army of the Cumberland [Applause] which sixty days later, at Missionary Ridge, was destined to put to rout this same doughty foe. That great here was General Thomas, "the Rock of Chickamauga," whose fitting monument stands wi hin a stone's throw of where we now deliberate. All honor to that noble son of Virgin a, but not to him alone was due the salvation of the Army of the Cumberland on that memorable occasion; but hard fought field, [Applause] Gentlemen, we meet here to-day with a condition confronting us not unlike that on the evening of the first day of Chickamauga. We are fighting in a glorious cause. The rank and file of our "rmy are men of intelligence and well know what they are fighting for.

also the brave men of the rank and file who fou ht for a principle which they

well understood, and whose ccurate military instinct was tested on many a

[Applause]
Through some mi carriage of excellent plans, through some treachery in our own ranks, through over confidence in our strength, principally on account of ill-chosen ground taken for onslaught our arms have recently met with some reverses The exultant enemy, drunk with unused-to victory, is strutting before our works, not only in imagined strength and securi v, bur with the presumption of our eve t a' capitulation Some of our leaders-in-chief, have proven inefficie t or recreant to their trusts. There is with us some confusion and chaos, and we may yet by destroyed by our own inaction. The rank and file, the great army of Democratic voters look for leadership, be it in one eager or more than one [Continued applause] Gentlemen, we the chosen representatives of the negro Democratic voters have met here to-day in council of war to take steps looking to their safety and their glory. We must equal the emer-gency. We must take a bold stand, and gency. We must take a bold state, sound the toesin of defiance and battle, sound that toesin of defiance and battle, and round us will rally that same grand army that swept the victorious fields in the campaigns of 1890 and 1892. As leaders, we have only to take a bold stand, like so many "Rocks of Chickamauga". We need no new enunciation of principles, but only the re-affirmation of the shibboleths of our tribe. We need only to draw our party robes more closely about us and study more closely the teachings and lives of those great statemen, saints whom we delight to honor and whose names stand for wellknown and cherished principles. Jeffers in for equality, Franklin for toleration, Jackson for national sovereignty. Is that be will be recalled. How begin a fi ht with those principles for nanimity, Grant for simplicity, Garfield much truth is in that I don't know. for free-trade and progress, David B. Hill for unse fish loyalty and Cleveland for a sigular combination of all of these great qualities a d others, the most conspicuous of which is honesty. [Applausel

Gentlemen, it were useless to pronounce eulogiums on our own party and our own men in their presence. fact that we are believers in these men and principles account for our being here to-day. But rather it is an occa-sion for taking our bearings, for noting the strength of our craft for replacing defective rigging, for stopping insidi-ous leaks, for examining the current and the winds, or, to revert to our military figure, it is a time to examine our lines to establish our pickets, to deploy our videttes, and to clear well of the enemy; find in what measure he depends upon real strength and in what measure upon mere subterfuges and ar ifices of strategy.

And gentlemen there is still another overlooked. It is the custom of govern-ments and armles after having work many trophies in a campaign to distribute those trophies to the bold and loyal officers and men whose valor made those victories possible The distribution of such trophies and the awarding of commissions is always the occasion of much rejicing to the brave men who dared to die. Such recognition is not on y necessary to the offective fighting status of an army, but goes further and gives bouyancy, esprit-du-orps to the army. It is such treat-ment of leaders and men that calls forth daring deeds, gallant feats, unti ing exertion, and cause men to "rush to glory or to grave."

The usual incentives to the performance of mere duties are the nece-sities of men. Love of country incite others still further. But the crowning feats of daring and prowess arise from a desire for glory and fame; and this is a laudable ambition, without whose incentives few, few would be the great names

1 hat brave and good and competent men be rewarded is therefore a necess-Our political integrity demands it. The awarding of these honors lies en-tirely with the President; but while they lie with him, he is yet dependent upon those who have personally witnessed the meri orious conduct of men in the field for advice upon whom to be-stow these honors. Most of us active leaders in the several recent campaigns, are in position to correctly advise the President in this regard and we should be recreant of duty ot only to the men deserving honors, but also to the President himself if we failed to correctly present to him the facts for his guid-

Therefore, gentemen, I recommend that among the several questions that shall claim our active consideration in the reforming of our lines and the rehabilitations of our forces, may be a PUBLIC OPINION ON THE formal recommendation by this body of KANSAS PORPOISE. men suitable for honors at the hands of appointing powers.

Gentlemen, in consonance with what I have just said and with a view of making this meeting effective of real good to our parts, I have the honor to propose for your consideration the fol-lowing recommendations:

1. Recommended that steps be taken to consolidate, so far as possible, all of the Afro-American Democratic organizations in the country into one powerful harmonious body with 48 branches.

2. Recommended that this meeting take stops looking to the selection of one favorably located newspaper which shall be well-backed and become t'e principal organ of the great organiz ton of Auo-

American clubs proposed.

3. Recommended that provision be made for giving credentials to persons desiring to do active canvassing or organizing, with a view to protecting the pub-lie against impostors 4. Recommended a literary bureau be established in connection with the pro-posed Afro-American Democratic journal whose purpos: shall be to compile into convenient and effective form literature specially adapted to canvassing among Afro-Americans. 5. R commended that this body take under advisement means whereby impostors and political mone-banks, who may have by deception gained the confidence and consideration of officials, shall be expost d and outlawed.

And now gentlemen, in concluding, permet me to add that no higher field of u-efulness is open to min than that of governing well or legislating well for his ellow-men. In America, the people govern, the people legislate. They require no standing army to ove awe their subjects, but through political organization, through men skilled in politics and hrough the silent and powe ful instrumentality of the ballot, the y rule. It is therefore an honor to be here to-day engaged in such a caus .

I should not close without referring to the brilliant cabinet with which the President has surrounded himself and to whom in a great measure is due the present able administration. With them at the helm of aff dirs, we can fittingly say:

"Democracy never did [nor never shall]
Lie at the proud foot of a conqueror,
Except when it firs did he p to wound itself.
Now these her princes are come home agalu,
Come the three corners of the word in arms,
And we shall shock them: Naught shall make us rue, If Democracy to it elf do rest but true."

LOUISE TO CLARA.

DEAR CLARA:

This has been a lively week. The latest sensation is the libel suit. When a thing is for a worthy cause there is nothing to be ashamed of, nor should the household be asham ed at what may be developed.

Don't understand me to mean the libel suit against the BEE. I would not dignify the occurrence that much, I mean the Holland Baily affair, I didn't attend my self, but from what I can understand, I believe that there was simply a misunderstanding between the gentle-

Marriages are becoming scarce and far between. The girls say that they cannot afford to marry a man and support him. That is about all that can be expected now of girls who marry these men. I don't say that this is the case with all parties concerned; there are exceptions to the rule, you know.

FEBRUARY STYLES.

Furs are used in flat bands upon jack. ts, corsages, vests and boleros and with these same furs, whole costumes are fashioned. The use of fur becomes more decided as the season advances. It is in all combinations and enters into the composition of house toilettes and street costumes, when it does not itself compose the entire costume.

In materials for the d-mi-season and spring, the first choice for visiting and street wear will be silk and woolen crepon, of the sort technically known as copeant." The recen ly imported fine woolen goods show much rougher sur faces than those which have been worn for some seasons.

It would be well to familiarize one's self with the distinguishing features of the different clan tartan-, as the gay colers and combinations of old Scotia

The fashion of wearing rose-like clumps of brilliantly hued artificial flow-ers on either side of the face nestling in rushing of gauze chiffon or satin is very attractive.

KANSAS PORPOISE.

F.om the Western Optic, C. H. J. Taylor's sins have found him

From the Texas Freeman

·Old Alphabet" Taylor tendered a dinner to the fellows who had been giving him thunder and now its all over, all over. The Record er reacued through their stomachs, after failing otherwise. Shrewd dog, that Recorder.

From the Kansas Blackman.

Editor Chase's fight on C II. J. Taylor is assuming alarming proportions and unless there is an awful change in affairs around the Recorder's office G eat Grover will be compelled to unload the man from Kansas. Verily, the way of the Negro Democrat is strewn wi h thorus.

From t e Nezro Solicit r.

If C. H. J. Taylor, recorder of deeds, D.strict of Columbia, is guilty of the charges made against him, he should be speedily removed without regard to his color, politics or competency. There should be such a thing as honor, even in au official. The integrity of the gent leman and his honor, we have had occasion to question ever since he went to Liberia as Cleveland's former minister. Whether he is held guilty or innocent of his present charge, our opinion of him r mains unchanged.

From the Arkansas Dispatch.

Hon. C. H. J. Taylor, register of leeds, is having his moral fitness for the responsible position he now occupies, much aired by the papers in Washington. It appears that, although a Negro Democrat, many of them desire his removal. Not that he is a Democrat, but that he is unfit for the place, morally. Well, it is the opinion of the Dispatch that a Negro Democrat lacks a great deal being morally fit for anything, say nothing about an office of as great a trust as that of Taylor's. So, if he is bounced, let him go! There is no kick due us; matters not whether he stays or not, as the civil service commission has recommended his removal, it will not surprise us to hear of his removal at any time.

From the Tekas Freeman.

Editor Chase of the Washington Bee has again opened the yials of his wrath on Recorder C. H. J. Taylor. The accusations made against a man holding such a place as "Old Alphabet" are monstrous, if true. This Recorder muddle is a stench in the nostrils of onest people and no greater service can be rendered the race by Charles Hen y James Taylor than by retiring from the office and allowing an honest man, whose character is irreproachable, to take charge at the helm. The race has been thoroughly disgraced by the nausea ing disclosures of official depravity, incompetency and executive misma agement.

From the Voice of t'e People,

When men begin to hop about among which they have worked long years to the skin and gives instead the rosy, healthy maintain, you may be very certain that there is a weak spot somewhere. That H.J. Taylor should now be in danger of the Democratic maw, does not surprise us. The Negro who has no more sense and principle than to turn Demo-cratic after all that that party has done to hinder us, ought to be caught in its quagmires and made to feel the sting of its down dropping poison.

From the 'egro Solicitor.

A recen issue of the Ottumwa Sun, defends Hon. C. H. J Faylor against the unscrupulous attacks made upon him by the Ottumwa Courier. In winding up the defence, the Sun makes the announcement, that Mr. Taylor's father was a very intelligent white man and his mother was a native African, the daughter of an African chief. A double mistake. No one, save the immediate neighbors, ever heard of Mr. Taylor's father, and his mother was born on a Southern plantation, just like other slaves.

HE STILL DEFIES LAW.

From the Philadel his ress.

Special Dispatch to "The Press." Washington, Dec. 27.—President Cleveland is still keeping in his pigeon-hole the recommendations of the Civil Service Commission, made after a thorough investigation, to the effect that Recorder Taylor, of this district, that Recorder Taylor, of this district, violated the Civil Service laws by leving and accepting assessments from Government employees for alleged campaign purposes. Whatever became of the money, aylor got it in open defiance of the law, and the Civil Service of the law of the Commission unanimously reported to

Robbers Thus Lock a County Treasurer

Santa Rosa, Cal., Dec. 31. — The treasury of Sonoma County was robbed of nearly $8,000 Friday and County Freasurer Stofer was left insensible in the treasury vault, the robbers locking the door on him. The robbery took place about 9 A. M., but was not discovered until 5 in the afternoon. All this time Treasurer Stofer lay on the floor of the vault gasping for breath, fearing that every conscious interval would be his last. Had it not been for the timely arrival of his wife, the only person in town who knew the combination, he would have died before the door of the vault was opened. Officers are searching the country for the robber, but not a trace has been

Efforts to Get the State of Illinois to Take Charge of It. Chicago, Dec. 18.-At a meeting of delegates from clubs and other organ-vzations interested, held in this city, a resolution was adopted that the del gates pledge themselves to do all in their power to induce the State to take the Lincoln monument out of the hands of the monument association, which now has control of it, and turn it over to the control of the State authorities The resolution also contemplates making admission to the monument free, and getting an appropriation from the next Legislature of from $30,000 to $100,000 to repair the monument. The monument, beneath which rest the remains of Lincoln, has been mutilated by vandals and injured by the weather. It was decided to call a mass meeting some time before January 1 in this city to demand that the appro-priation be made at once. Many Assembly candidates were elected on this pledge, and the feeling in the State is ntense. Although the Garfield monument cost $20,000 less, it is much better kept than that of Lincoln.
